Religion: We are studying the Our Father, and will discuss Lent. Ash Wednesday is February 14.

Valentine's Day: We will exchange Valentines on February 13. Those who agreed to help us with treats are:

Mrs. Smith-cookie,
Mrs. Stubbs-napkin, Mrs. Reber-juice box, and Mrs. Schwab-treat bags. Please send them in on the morning of Feb. 13. Thank you.

Bruno: Our Brazilian friend, Bruno spent his last day with us today. His mother and father came in this morning to talk with us about a visit to China. How pleased I was to see so many children raising their hands to answer Mrs. Viera's questions! We enjoyed Bruno's time with us, will miss him, and hope he returns to our school next year. We have exchanged contact information, so we hope to keep in touch!

Reading and Language Arts: We continue to focus on the main idea and details, sequencing story events, alphabetical order, subject and verb agreement, capitalization, and end mark usage.

English: We have introduced pronouns and possessive pronouns.

Math: Telling time to the hour and half hour, finding the missing addend, drawing congruent shapes, and fact memorization.

Science/Social Studies: We continue learning about China; then we will begin a unit on dental health.

Thanks to our sponsors for all they do for us.

Have a wonderful weekend!
