

I SPY AT MASS

Today we celebrate the Sixth Sunday of Easter. In our Gospel passage for this week from John, Jesus shares with us that the most important thing we can do on this earth is to love one another. So many other good things come from loving one another: being kind and not hurting each other by our words or our actions, making sure that everyone has food and shelter, and spreading peace in our world. If we each do our best to follow Jesus' commandment that we love one another as He loves us, our world will definitely be a much better place!

On the Way to Mass....

Sing the Love Round.

At Mass.....

Use the coloring page and Mass quiz to help you pay attention. Watch and listen. How many times do you hear the word, "love?" Do you see some examples of loving one another?

On the Way Home and the Rest of the Week....

On the way home and the rest of this week, think about Jesus' love for you and how you can share this love with the people in your life. Can you do something to help mom or dad around the house? Can you play a game with a younger brother or sister? Can you be extra kind to a friend at school who may be feeling lonely or sad? Jesus is waiting to talk with you in prayer. Think about how you can let Jesus' wonderful love shine through you!
